While looking across the square there was called Milburn a liar, whereupon Milburn shot seen "a solitary horseman," clad in the uniform of a Yankoo cavalryman, riding slowly along the street toward the hotel. Reaching it he leisurely dismounted and hitched his horse, walked into the office and called for the landlord. That worthy tremblingly presented himself and asked his pleasure, and was informed he wanted his breakfast. This was soon ready for him, but the crowd noticed that while it was being prepared he took care that no one was allowed to get behind him, and at the same time kept his carbine-an improved | IOWA. repeating gun-in his hand ready for instant

The crowd, paralyzed by the audacity of the man, had up to this time looked on in almost silent amazement; some muttering in whispers that something ought to be done, and others claiming that it could not be a Yankee, as no Yankee would dare to do such a thing. At last one bolder than the rest ventured to inquire what command he belonged to. He replied that he belonged to the 5th Ohio Cav., of Buell's army. Another inquired where Buell's army was, and was informed it would be there soon enough. Having imparted this information he went out and mounted his horse and rode away toward Huntsville.

When the Yankee was fairly out of sight the courage of the crowd returned. One man went home and in a few minutes came back mounted and armed with a double-barreled shotgun, and swearing with many oaths that no single Yankee should enter that town and leave it alive, he started down the Huntsville road in | MAINE. apparent pursuit. ### RANSOM POST.

A Regular Meeting of Unusual Interest. One of the very best Posts in every respect in the United States is Ransom Post, No. 131, Charles F. Cadle, Secretary, Muscatine: The St. Louis, Department of Missouri. It has a peculiar membership, embracing many of the leading professional and business men of St. Louis. Of its 499 members more than 300 bore commissions, and among these are six Brigadier-Generals, two Major-Generals and one General. Gen. W. T. Sherman organized the Post in 1883, and was its first Commander. Among the other distinguished men belonging to the Post are Maj.-Gens. Pope and Harney, and Brig.-Gens. Grier, Fullerton, Turner, Farrar, Mizner and Henderson.

The regular meeting of the Post was held on the evening of Saturday, the 24th, and was one of unusual interest and importance. It was known that the regular Post-room was too small for the number that would assemble, and visiting comrades. This was finely decorated bronze fieldpiece with its limber. The interior arranged in tasteful forms. Large frescoes of battle scenes adorned the walls, and alongside | written to members turned out in a body and in full unition must be credited much of the unusual growth of the Post, conducted the meeting in admirable style, assisted by a most efficient set of Post officers. Gens. Sherman, Pope and Grier were present as members, and Past Commanders-in-Chief Beath and Kountz, and Department Commander Kimball and Gen. John

W. Fuller as visitors. Six comrades were mustered in in fine style, after which Gens. Sherman and Fuller, Past Commanders-in-Chief Beath and Kountz, Department Commander Kimbail, Col. Dyer and Capt. S. P. Galt made happy little speeches. Adj't Emile A. Becker has gotten up the Bylaws and Roster of the Post in fine shape. It opens with a well-written biographical sketch of Gen. T. E. G. Ransom. This is followed by the By-laws, and these by a Roster, which gives every member's military record, his business and residence. The cover is embellished with an excellent likeness of Gen. Ransom.

If, after a special examination, you are advised that your invention is patentable, send the estimated cost of the drawings and $15 to pay the first Government fee. The application will then be prepared, filed and prosecuted without further expense to the applicant until the Patent Office Examiner admits the patentability of the invention or the case is officially allowed.

After the application has been declared to be patentable the attorney's fee of $25 is due, but before the patent can issue a second Government fee of $20 must be paid, thus making the total cost of patent in ordinary cases (exclusive of drawings) $55.

A special examination and report will cost $5, which amount is applied as part of attorney's fee should an application for patent be proceeded with within 50 days from date of special report.

The automey's fee is only contingent in cases where a special examination has first been made and a favorable report rendered. ble report rendered.

Thus you know beforehand whether you are going t secure a patent or not, and no atterney's fee is charged unless a patent is obtained. An attorney whose fee depends on his success in obtaining a patent will not advise you that your invention is patentable unless it really in so far as his best judgment can aid in determining the question; hence you can rely on the advice given after a special examination. Design Patents and the Registration of Labels, Trade-Marks and Reissues secured. Caveats prepared and filed. Applications in revivor of Rejected, Abandoned or Forfeited Causandle. Vary after valuable inventions are saved in these revivor of Rejected. Abandaned or Forfeited Cases made. Very often valuable inventions are saved in these classes of cases. If you have undertaken to secure your own patent and failed, a skillful handling of the case may lead to success. Send me a written request, addressed to the Commissioner of Patents, that he recognize Grores E. Lenon, of Washington, D. C., as your attorney in the case, giving the title of the invention and about the date of filing your application. An examination and report will cost you nothing. Searches made for title to inventions—in fact, any information relating to patents promptly furnished. Copies of patents mailed at the regular Government rates (22c. each). Remember this office has been in successful operation since 1855, and you therefore reap the benefits of experience; besides, reference can be given to actual clients in almost every County in the United States upon request.

Opinions given regarding validity of patents, searches made; Assignments and Agreements drawn, and all patent business transacted.
